

The Rosemary Arcudi Sprague Outreach Service Award (RASOSA)

Guidelines: Please read completely before submission.

Eligible applicants are any Little through Miss contestants competing in the PONC state pageant on July 25-27th, 2024.

Each eligible applicant must submit a one-page essay describing your community service during the 2023- 2024 pageant year and how it has impacted the community and you personally.

Each essay must be one page, typed, single spaced. Please use no less than 10 font. Your name and age division should be in the upper left-hand corner. Following your name and age division you can double space and then begin your community service essay. Please include specific details and dates documenting your community service during the specified time frame only. All applicant entries will be reviewed by a panel of judges and the recipient will be announced at the Princess of NC State pageant on July 27, 2024. The award will be presented on stage by Rosemary Arcudi Sprague 2015 Overall Supreme Princess of North Carolina.

The winner will receive a beautiful acrylic award for display, $100 in cash and a $250 contribution will be made in her honor to a charity for children in her community or in the state of North Carolina. With your community service entry please submit on a separate sheet of paper the specific charity of your choice including the correct charity name, address and contact person information. The donation will be mailed directly to the charity in honor of the winner and the reason for the contribution.

We are thrilled to be able to continue to give back to the community through this award in honor of our daughter Rosemary who is the youngest contestant to ever win Overall Supreme Princess of North Carolina.

The purpose of each individual life is to be of service, to be honorable, to be compassionate, to have made some difference that you have lived and lived well and that by your actions you will show others in need the love of Christ.

We look forward to reviewing your submissions. All Applications must be postmarked by July 1, 2024.
